RABBI'S MESSAGE

Rescuers on a rescue boat once threw a ring buoy to a man drowning at sea. "No thanks!" he gasped. "G-d will save me."

A helicopter hovering above lowered a rope ladder for the man to climb up, but he waved them away, because he was waiting for G-d. As he was about to go under, he pushed away a raft floating by because because he was waiting for G-d, and he drowned.

Facing the heavenly court he complained to G-d "Why did you not save me?" G-d replied "I tried saving you, but you rejected my boat, my helicopter and even my raft..."

During the 40-year journey that the Jews trekked through the desert G-d routinely showed them tremendous miracles to enable them to survive. Heavenly food called Manna descended every weekday morning, water flowed from a stone, and they were protected from the harsh elements by divine clouds. Their clothing never tattered, remained in pristine condition, and even adjusted to their sizes.

Why was it necessary for them to live such a dream-like reality for so long? Even if it was necessary to delay entering the Promised Land for forty years, G-d could have led them on a route close enough to civilization so they could purchase food, water, clothing, and all other basic necessities.

Moshe explains to the people that the forty years of miracles was G-d's way of educating us a profound truth about nature and the real world. "So that He (G-d) would make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but rather by, whatever comes forth from the mouth of the L-rd does man live." (Deuteronomy 8:3)

G-d redeemed us from Egyptian slavery and gave us the Torah at Mt. Sinai so that we should live lives permeated with the knowledge that everything is controlled and determined by the Creator. The routineness of nature makes such an attitude challenging, so, G-d gave us forty years of miraculous survival so that we should appreciate that nutrition, shelter and comfort comes exclusively from G-d.

The Rebbe once wrote in a postscript to a businessman in England: "Don't worry so much about business. More Bitachon (trust in G-d) - equals more Parnasa (financial success)."

We can't wait for food to fall from heaven and must responsibly do our part to make a living, but success is in G-d's hands alone and there is no reason to stress over it. Better invest your energies into nurturing an active and passionate relationship with G-d, through learning more Torah, doing mitzvot, giving charity generously and inspiring others to do the same, and experience the heavenly blessings flowing through your natural efforts.

As Rosh Hashana approaches, we pray that G-d bless us with a year of health, happiness, and success!

Mussie & I wish you a Shana Tova Umituka - A happy sweet new year.

WOMEN'S CHAVURAH

Letters:

I just received the Purim package delivered by April Sharrock and the Velasco-Stile children. It was a blessing and a timely gift. I was having a difficult day and missing my daughter so very much. Tears were flowing and then Hashem came to the door to remind me of kindness, goodness and blessings. So to G-d, to Kaila, Rabbi, Anshe Sfard and April, thank you for the gift of perfect timing. Thank you all. HE saw my need and made HIS presence known to me in my time of sorrow. Steve and I are humbled and grateful today and always.

Eileen and Steve Shonfeld

Can't thank you enough for always reaching out, keeping me and Kevin in your prayers. You make me feel like I always have a home in Ohio.
