Letters

Adam, Maddie and I want to thank you for your visit and all the goodies you brought us. We did freeze some and think of your thoughtfulness everytime we take a bite.

Adam, Abby, Noa & Maddie

Thank you so very much for the wonderful Friday night dinner. We all enjoyed it very much. Keep doing your good work!

Pam & Robert Taub

The family joins me in thanking you for all your wonderful words about Bob and your kindness to us. The Shabbos dinner was a special treat and care packages went home with the children. We will miss him but are consoled by the support of loving friends and the memories which we will cherish. Rochelle Stone

Oh my goodness the meal you sent our family for Shabbat hit the spot!

We had enough food for 3 days. All the relatives went wild over your food and we were so grateful to Robyn Tobias for staying so late into the night to help us out! It was so needed and appreciated! And the Ohayon's gluten free dessert cake was out of this world Seriously thank you, it was just what we needed.

ADDRESS SERVICES REQUESTED

Friday, August 24, 2018

5:30 p.m. at Beth El Congregation

with guest speaker

Rabbi Gershon Sizomu

Rabbi Gershon Sizomu, the leader of the Abayudaya Jews of Uganda, is the first black rabbi from sub-Saharan Africa to be ordained at an American rabbinic school. As a visionary community leader, he chose to attend a rabbinic seminary to better understand ancient and modern Judaism and bring the Ugandan community into mainstream Judaism. The Abayudaya are a growing community of over 1,500 Jews living among their 10,000 Christian and Muslim neighbors in scattered villages in the rolling, green hills of Eastern Uganda.

In 2016 Rabbi Sizomu ran for Ugandan Parliament for the second time and won an opposition seat representing the Bungokho North District. He is the first Rabbi to win a seat in Parliament in Uganda's history.

Rabbi Sizomu will also participate in the services, teaching some African Jewish melodies.
